

Dear Supporter,

At Access Industries for the Disabled we are committed to ensuring the privacy of the personal information you have provided to us. We believe that respect for your privacy forms part of the ongoing trust we wish to develop with you. The following statement sets out our general policy for the protection of your privacy.

We are bound by the 10 National Privacy Principles that form part of the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000, an amendment to the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth).

The personal information we store on our files is as follows: -

- Your name, address, telephone number.
- The date of your ticket/s purchase and the ticket number/s.
- Your history of ticket/s purchases.
- Any Art Union prizes you have won.

The reason for holding personal information is as follows: -

- To send you correspondence in relation to the Art Union ticket/s you have purchased.
- Internal accounting and administration.
- To protect you and us from fraud,
- To inform you of any future Art Unions which we may conduct.

You have the right to access the personal information we store on you. If you find that the information we hold is inaccurate or out-of-date then we will correct it.

Before meeting your request we must verify your identity, which we will process in a reasonable time.

The results of the Art Union showing the description of the prize, ticket number, the name of the ticket holder and town is published in the "Public Notices" section of the newspapers as soon as possible after the draw.

If you think that your privacy has been interfered with, due to a breach of our obligations, then you can contact us directly. If you are not satisfied with our response, we will advise you of your options for further proceedings regarding your complaint.

If you wish to know more regarding the way we manage personal information then you can contact us at: -
